

UNDERTAKING ASSESSMENTS OF POTENTIAL FOSTER CARERS

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE F FORM

AIMS OF THE WORKSHOP

The workshop will increase participant's understanding of the F Form and the process of assessment of potential foster carers from building rapport to presenting to panel. This introductory workshop aims to increase confidence in approaching independent fostering agencies to undertake F Form assessments.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Social Workers, including Independent freelance Social Workers, interested in undertaking F Form assessments for the first time.

FACILITATORS

Chris Anderson Independent Social Worker and Trainer, Chris has delivered training to social workers and foster carers and sits as an Independent Social Worker on several fostering panels.

Maggie Whymark Independent Consultant and Social Worker, Maggie has delivered a wide variety of training including the child protection and family support module on the social work degree at Buckinghamshire University.

Guest Facilitator: Darren Wilkins

Independent Social Worker and Manager. Darren has managed teams in child care and Fostering. He is an experienced Review Manager and is currently a County Adviser for Adoption and Fostering. He is also chair of an Independent Fostering Agency and sits on three other panels.

DATE/TIME

Friday 4th April 2008
10 am - 4.30 pm (Registration: 9.30 am)

VENUE

Quaker Centre, 1 Oakley Gardens, Downhead Park, Milton Keynes
MK15 9BH

Free parking is available on site.

COST

£85 + VAT (Lunch Included)

BOOKING

Places are limited. To book please e-mail maggie@maggiewhymarkltd.co.uk or call 0796 467 9057